

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH ALGONQUIN

BY-LAW NUMBER 2011-416

Being a By-Law to amend Section 3.1 (v) and (vi) of By-Law 2007-270, being a Purchasing Policies and Procedures by-law for the Township of South Algonquin.

WHEREAS The Corporation of the Township of South Algonquin deems it expedient to establish comprehensive purchasing policies and procedures, which shall be subject to approval and periodic review by Council and updated as required; and

WHEREAS any change in the threshold values contained in the purchasing policies and procedures shall be approved by Council; and

WHEREAS Section 3.1 (v) defines the process used for purchases greater in value than $20,000.00; and

WHEREAS Section 3.1 (vi) outlines that all Vehicles purchased be advertised by Public Tender; and

WHEREAS Section 3.1 (v) and (vi) restricts the process used to replace vehicles that has been written off due to Fire loss or Damage by an Insurance Company through replacement value.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Council for the Corporation of the Township of South Algonquin amends By-Law 2007-270 by enacting as follows:

That the Clerk-Treasurer has the authority to replace a vehicle of equal value, make and model, through government pricing with the approval of Council, without going through a Tendering process.
