

The Community Volunteer Income Tax Program helps eligible taxpayers with a Simple tax situation & a Modest Income

Modest income:

The following table provides a guideline to determine if an individual is eligible for the CVITP. In general, a modest income means the total family income is less than the amount shown in the chart below, based on the size of the family.

Family size	Total family income
1 person	$35,000
2 persons	$45,000
3 persons	$47,500
4 persons	$50,000
5 persons	$52,500
more than 5 persons	$52,500 plus $2,500 for each additional person

Family size includes an individual with dependents, or couple with dependents

Simple tax situation:

In general, a tax situation is simple if an individual has no income or if their income comes from these sources: employment; pension; benefits, such as Canada Pension Plan, Old Age Security, disability insurance, employment insurance, and social assistance; Registered Retirement Savings Plans (RRSPs); support payments; scholarships, fellowships, bursaries, or grants; interest (under $1,000)

Your tax situation is not simple if you: are self-employed with income over $1,000; have employment or self-employment (if eligible) expenses; have business or rental income and expenses; have capital gains or losses; filed for bankruptcy in the tax year; foreign income (exception: U.S. Social Security benefits) or property; are completing a tax return for a deceased person.
